

BE PART OF SOMETHING BIG THIS SUMMER.

DEPAUL UNIVERSITY UNION SUMMER SCHOOL

The DePaul Labor Center offers two intensive one-week union summer school programs for high school students in the Chicagoland area and Ottawa, Illinois.

Prepare for college level coursework and learn what it takes to be part of the labor movement. Union Summer School students learn about labor history, collective bargaining, and how organized labor is critical to achieving economic justice. Participants will receive a stipend.

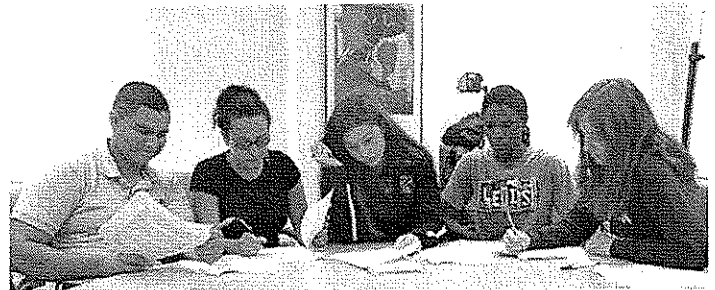

There will be two sessions of Union Summer School in 2015: June 22-26 in Ottawa and July 6-10 in Chicago. To apply, visit bit.ly/UnionSummerSchool.

DEPAUL UNIVERSITY LABOR INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Beginning in 2015, the DePaul Labor Center will offer paid Chicago area internships for high school students at local unions and worker campaigns.

Gain professional experience and build your skillset for the future. The DePaul Labor Center coordinates internship placements, provides a program orientation and facilitates weekly cohort meetings for all interns.

The 2015 DePaul Labor Center Internship Program runs from June 29 (Orientation Day) through July 31, 2015. To apply, visit bit.ly/LaborInternship.

FOUNDED IN 1948 by a group of forward thinking labor leaders and progressive academics, DePaul University's Labor Education Center serves as a resource center to students, labor activists, academics and community leaders seeking a deeper understanding of labor issues and economic justice. DePaul Labor Center's Regina V. Polk High School Program provides organized labor education curriculum to more than 3,000 Illinois high school students annually.

DePaul Labor Center | 14 E. Jackson, Chicago, IL 60604 | bit.ly/DePaulLaborCenter | 312-362-5823